ENGL 463	Introduction to Sociolinguistics	3(3,0)
This course addresses the ways language serves and is shaped by society. It considers topics such as dialect variation across regions, gender differences in language use, and the social functions of language.

ENGL 497	Advanced Topics in English	3(3,0)
This course offers students an in-depth study of linguistics, literature, or fiction/nonfiction writing. Students will be involved in research and teamwork activities. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor

Freshman English

ENGL 101	Freshman English	3(3,0)
This course helps students reinforce their reading and writing skills. It focuses on the interrelatedness of reading and writing, in which students critically read and write essays using different rhetorical modes (classification, cause-and-effect analysis, comparison-and-contrast analysis, and persuasion). Some structural elements are reviewed to ensure accuracy in students' writing. Students are also introduced to research skills and APA documentation. Prerequisite: TOEFL Score of 514-549 or IELP 095.100

Intensive English Language Program (IELP)

The mission of the Intensive English Language Program (IELP) at Rafik Hariri University is to provide incoming students with high-quality English language instruction to help them read, write, speak, and understand English at increasingly high levels of proficiency. We prepare students to communicate effectively in English in a friendly and supportive learning environment.

English Placement Chart

Students are placed in levels based on their English proficiency and progress through them as their English skills grow. The contents of any level address a variety of language skills. The following table summarizes the number of credits per level, the number of courses a student can take, and the corresponding scores on standard tests (TOEFL, SAT, and IELTS) required for placement at the IELP level.

IELP Level	# of Credits	Allowable Major Credits	TOEFL IBT	TOEFL ITP*	Old SAT Writing	New SAT Writing	IELTS
IELP 085	12	10	30 - 40	380-439	320-339	18	3 – 3.5
