B. Major Electives

As part of the Bachelor of Business Administration in Human Resources Management program, students must study 3 credit hours of major electives. Major electives could be upper-level courses in the major or closely related business areas, such as Project Management or E-Business. These courses allow students to focus on a specific area for in-depth knowledge and understanding. Meanwhile, they introduce flexibility into the program, allowing the integration of emerging topics.

In cooperation with the academic advisor, students should select the elective course that best meets their needs, abilities, and aspirations. It is highly recommended that the student register for these courses after completing the Departmental requirements. The table below lists some recommendations for major elective courses:

Course #	Title	Credits	Prerequisites
BITM 415	Business Intelligence	3	Senior Standing
BADM 480	Independent Studies	3	Advisor's approval

Moreover, under certain conditions specified by the department and subject to the advisor's approval, a student may take BADM 480 (independent studies) as a substitute for a program's mandatory course. The course's description is below.

C. Entrepreneurship

The instructor leads the students through the detailed aspects of starting a business, from identifying an opportunity and conducting a feasibility study to preparing a business plan covering marketing, operations, and finance. Students also learn about funding, expansion, and franchising strategies. Prerequisite: Senior Standing.

D. Co-op Experience

Each student must complete 8 weeks of practical training in a field related to their interests. The co-op experience is usually fulfilled during the summer semester of the program's third year. The Co-op office matches the Co-op assignment with the student's field of study and the employer's interest. A faculty member follows up on a student's progress throughout the Co-op period by conducting field visits to ensure that the student's performance is aligned with their aspirations and the employer's needs. Students must then submit formal reports and posters and make formal presentations about their Co-op experience. While ENGL 217 and Senior Standing are the essential prerequisites for co-op training, the program may impose additional conditions.

Career Opportunities

For those who pursue a professional career, business graduates majoring in HRM typically start as an "HR specialist" in one HR function at a large organization or as an "HR generalist" in the HR department of a small firm. From there, they can advance to upper-level managerial positions. HRM graduates pursuing an academic career can advance by choosing a graduate or postgraduate path in general management or HRM, which can lead to careers in academia and research.
