B. Major Electives

Major electives could be upper-level courses in Management or closely related business areas. These courses allow students to focus on a specific area for in-depth knowledge and understanding. Meanwhile, they introduce flexibility into the program, allowing the integration of emerging topics.

In consultation with the academic advisor, the student should select the elective course that best aligns with their needs and aspirations. It is highly recommended that the student register for these courses after completing the Departmental requirements. The table below lists some recommendations for major elective courses:

Course #	Title	Credits	Prerequisites

C. Entrepreneurship

The instructor leads the students through the detailed aspects of starting a business, from identifying an opportunity and conducting a feasibility study to preparing a business plan covering marketing, operations, and finance. Students also learn about funding, expansion, and franchising strategies. Prerequisite: Senior Standing.

D. Co-op Work Experience

Each student must complete 8 weeks of practical training in a field related to their interests. The Co-op experience is typically completed during the Summer Semester of the program's second year. The Co-op office matches the Co-op assignment with the student's field of study and the employer's interest. A faculty member follows up on a student's progress throughout the Co-op period by conducting field visits to ensure that the student's performance is aligned with their aspirations and the employer's needs. Students must then submit formal reports and posters and make formal presentations about their Co-op experience. While ENGL 217 and Senior Standing are the essential prerequisites for co-op training, the program may impose additional conditions.

Career Opportunities

In pursuing a professional career, business management graduates would be highly eligible for entry-level administrative positions in banking, insurance, tourism, retail, and most support functions of the economy's health, education, consultancy, and industrial sectors. With more experience, they can advance to upper-level managerial positions. Management graduates pursuing an academic career can advance by choosing a graduate or postgraduate path in a specialization within the management field, such as HRM, Supply Chain Management, Operations, or Retail Management, among others, which can lead to careers in academia and research.
