MINOR IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

Program Overview

In today's world of globalization, interdependence, and tough competitive pressures, professional work environments have become multidimensional and multidisciplinary, regardless of one's area of expertise. Consequently, 21st-century professionals are expected to branch out beyond their areas of expertise and acquire additional competencies to meet the challenges of diverse tasks and assignments. In particular, it has become difficult today to succeed in engineering, science, medicine, the arts, and humanities without some fundamental competence in business administration.

In recognition of this development and to meet its demands and expectations, the College of Business Administration at Rafik Hariri University offers a Minor in Business Administration for non-business students. The program is designed to ensure the acquisition of a fundamental foundation of knowledge and competence in business administration, with an entrepreneurial flavor.

Program Requirements

To complete the Minor in Business Administration program, a student must

1) Declare a Minor in Business Administration by completing the Minor Declaration Form;
2) Obtain the approval of the dean of the college major and the dean of the College of Business Administration.
3) Obtain a Minor Cumulative Grade Point Average of no less than 70 %.
4) Complete 18 credits of business coursework as specified below

Learning Goal

Provide students with a fundamental base of knowledge and competence in business administration, with a flavor of entrepreneurship.

Learning Objectives

Upon Completion of the minor program, students should be able to

1) Identify and explain basic core concepts in the main business functional areas, namely accounting, economics, finance, management, and marketing.
2) Utilize business principles to assess and consequently understand the dynamics of internal and external business environments.
3) Assess and discuss the requirements needed to launch and succeed in a startup business and entrepreneurial initiatives.

MINOR IN HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Program Overview

This Minor program aims to prepare students for professional certification and/or a career in human resources management. Although the program is designed to broaden the professional credentials of non-business students, these students may still find value in it.

Students in the humanities, social sciences, and languages may greatly benefit from the program by adding a practical business dimension to their career choices and employment prospects.

Program Requirements

To complete the Minor in Human Resources Management program, a student must

1) Declare a Minor in Human Resources Management by completing the Minor Declaration Form.
2) Obtain the approval of the dean of the college major and the dean of the College of Business Administration.
3) Obtain a Minor Cumulative Grade Point Average of no less than 70 %.
4) Complete 18 credits of business coursework as specified below

| Course # | Title | Credits | Prerequisites |
|---|---|---|---|
| BHRM 300 | Human Resources Management | 3 | BMGT 200 |
| BHRM 305 | Labor Law and Labor Relations | 3 | Junior Standing |
| BHRM 350 | Workforce Planning, Recruitment, and Selection | 3 | BHRM 300 |
| BHRM 400 | HR Training and Development | 3 | BHRM 300 |
| BHRM 450 | Performance Management, Compensation, and Benefits | 3 | BHRM 300 |
| BMGT 200 | Introduction to Management | 3 | Co-req. ENGL 210 |

It should be noted that common courses between the student's major requirements and the BHRM minor requirements count toward fulfilling the minor requirements. Nonetheless, the student must complete at least 6 credit hours of coursework that are not counted toward the requirements of their major or any other minor.

Students majoring in Management already take BMGT 200 and BHRM 300. They may also benefit from taking one of the other courses listed above as a major elective. Accordingly, they will still need to complete 3 courses (9 credits) to earn the minor.

Students majoring in business, other than BHRM or BMGT, already take BMGT 200. They may also benefit from taking one of the other courses listed above as a major elective. Accordingly, they will still need to complete 4 courses (12 credits) to earn the minor.

Learning Goal

The primary goals of this minor program are to:

a. Familiarize students with the theories, principles, and best practices of human resources management.
b. Enable students to leverage their knowledge in other domains into the best practices of employee relations.
c. Provide students with the theoretical and educational background needed for certification and/or employment in human resources

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this minor, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate key knowledge and skills in human resources management,
2. Apply analytical skills to HR problem-solving,
3. Contribute to individual, team, and organizational goals using interpersonal communication skills,
4. Reflect upon the basics of organizational and human resources strategic planning
